

ENF Script For Use With Minus 1 MP3

Cast Focus Feature (:60)

ANNOUNCER: Academy-award winner Robert Redford directs and stars in the new political thriller, LIONS FOR LAMBS, along with screen icons Meryl Streep and Tom Cruise.

REDFORD: There are three stories, one involving media, the other involving politics, the other involving education they kind of move into this sort of vortex.

ANNOUNCER: In casting the film, Redford looked for certain qualities in his stars. For reporter Janine Roth, Streep's intelligence was key.

REDFORD: I used her collaboratively because she's smart, so I invited her to contribute whatever she wanted to in terms of writing and so forth.

ANNOUNCER: To bring dimension to the character of Senator Irving, Redford looked to Tom Cruise.

REDFORD: The idea of Tom playing a Senator...I thought that was intriguing. He is somebody that you can see charming people. I thought that could work very well.

ROTH/STREEP: Don't you think it might be critical to examine how we got to this point?

IRVING/CRUISE: How and why is not the issue now.

IRVING/CRUISE: We have to move forward.

ROTH/STREEP: Says the man in the air conditioned room.

CRUISE: This film is very much an embodiment of who Robert Redford is as a filmmaker.

STREEP: I was just amazed at Redford's ability to make this seem like one story instead of three.

ANNOUNCER: LIONS FOR LAMBS opens in theaters on November 9. With Entertainment News Feed, I'm _____.
